About the city...

Rome is the capital and largest city of Italy. Known as the 'Eternal City', Rome is one of the world's most visited tourist destination. Its historic city centre is a UNESCO World Heritage Site filled with famous landmarks, grand palaces, ancient churches, ruins, statues and fountains. Rome is also recognised as one of the fashion capitals of the world, with a growing nightlife scene. The gay scene in Rome is not yet as 'out in the open' as in other European capitals – partly due to the influence of the Catholic Church. However, times are changing and, as in many other European countries, a new generation of gay men has emerged.

Tivoli & Roman Villas

After breakfast meeting with our LGBT Friendly Driver and departure to Tivoli and discover two UNESCO World Heritage Sites, Villa d'Este and Hadrian's Villa. Visit the Renaissance Villa d'Este was built in the 1550s for Cardinal Ippolito d'Este, the son of Lucretia Borgia. Built over a Benedictine convent, the palace was intended for entertaining and contains lavishly frescoed reception rooms. The main attraction for visitors, however, is the breathtaking garden. Designed to impress the Cardinal's guests, the Villa d'Este's gardens are composed almost exclusively of water features and precious fountains. After lunch on your own, continue with the Villa Adriana, a undescrivable place. The Emperor Hadrian conceived a countryside dwelling here that would by normal standards be considered a town. A gigantic complex with underground service passages big enough for vehicles (tantalising glimpses are still visible), the Villa incorporates lakes, fountains, libraries, baths, temples and gardens. The area covered is staggering, and highly confusing even when armed with a map; it's easy to imagine the emperor himself asking for directions. Afterwards transfer back to Rome.

About the city...

Bruges is the largest city in the Belgian province of West Flanders. The first fortifications were built here and in 1098 it became the capital of the Flanders region. About the city...

Porto is the second largest urban area of Portugal. It's history dates back to pre-Roman times, it was occupied by the Moors and invaded by Napoleon's forces. The city was famous for its wine production giving its name to the fortified wine. Visitors to Porto come to see the UNESCO-designated old city centre, sample the local gastronomic products, shop and immerse themselves in the city's culture. When it comes to compare Porto to Lisbon, Porto turns out to be a conservative city. Luckily Portugal is a very liberal and welcoming place and Porto do not make exceptions. If you go through the surface, you will find a decent and buzzing selection of gay activities, mostly located in the area around Jardim da Cordoaria. Here, the annual LGBT Pride parade is becoming increasingly popular every year.

About the city...

Athens isn't just an LGBTQ-friendly city, it's a place with a very long history of sexual liberalism that prides itself on catering to all its communities, affording everyone the widest possible range of choices. While the history of homosexuality is an essential part of Greek culture, Greeks are very covert about their sexuality, possibly due to modern Orthodoxy. Homosexuality is completely legal in Greece and more accepted in Athens than elsewhere in the country.

About the city...

In the south Aegean Sea, south of Mykonos finds its place this strikingly beautiful Greek island. The island's due its unique geology a volcanic eruption, that has been recorded in 1450 b.C. as the largest in history. The centre of the original larger island dropped 300 meters below sea level after this event and generated the world famous giant lagoon, known as "The Caldera". In the centre of the Caldera is an active volcanic cone that has formed a small, hot & ever-changing island. The towns of Fira, Imerovigli and Oia literally are located on the top of the cliffs overlooking the caldera and giving us views that can be some of the most dramatic in the world. Even though Santorini does not have any gay venues, the island attracts many gay tourists looking for charming weather and stunning sights.

Historic Tour

Enjoy the turning back journey to the prehistoric site of Akrotiri. Guided visit with LGBT Friendly Tour Guide in the Minoan Town of Akrotiri, one of the most important prehistoric settlements of Greece. Akrotiri is a Bronze Age settlement on the southern side of Santorini that was destroyed by the huge volcanic eruption of Thera. As Akrotiri was entirely covered by volcanic ash, it was preserved in perfect conditions so as to be referred today as the Prehistoric Pompeii. Excavations in Akrotiri have revealed a place of dense urban planning, public buildings, paved streets, squares, store houses and walls decorated with amazing frescoes. These frescoes depict scenes of festival occasions and daily life. As they were covered by lava, they maintained their coloring amazingly well. Due to its way of destruction, Akrotiri has been frequently suggested as the location of the lost Atlantis.

About the city...

Located on the western coast of the Istrian peninsula, it is a popular tourist resort and an active fishing port. Istriot, a Romance language once widely spoken in this part of Istria, is still spoken by some of the residents. The town is officially bilingual, Italian and Croatian, hence both town names are official and equal. Rovinj is one of the best and most popular summer holiday destinations in Croatia. Visitors who want to enjoy a luxurious holiday can stay in the elite Monte Mulini zone, next to the Golden Cape forest park, where top quality 4-star and 5-star hotels overlooking the beautiful Mulini Beach near the newly-built marina are located. Numerous coves and gravel beaches, children's playgrounds and other facilities offered by family-friendly hotels, tourist resorts, campsites and private accommodation make Rovinj an excellent choice for a family vacation.

Gay Friendly Tour & Old Town's Secrets

Enjoy a very special LGBT tour in Rovinj, a city which was born as a coincidence, an attempt of survival- and you would never even imagine that when sipping your perfect Italian coffee at water front gazing at the boats in the port. It used to be an island, a small village surrounded by walls. The little settlement eventually overgrew the island and the channel, that had always protected it from dangers, had to be landfilled in 1763. By then, Rovinj was the major town of Istria - the richest, the most populous, the most lively area of the wider region; an important trade stop exporting olive oil, wine, salted fish and stone. Today, Rovinj is definitely one of the best known places in Croatia as well as the iconic landmark of the region of Istria. This private tour is designed for those who would like to discover Rovinj in an unusual and interesting way. We will start at the Valdibora farmers' market area, walk through the market and make our way through the Lower town to the Bridge Square. That is where it all began- historically the narrowest section of the channel, now a beautiful square where all major streets from the old and new towns meet. Along Carera street and the water front we reach the main Square where the old „Batana“ boats are still visible in the harbor (Intangible Cultural Heritage recognized by the Unesco) - a stop at the Batana museum is paramount to better understand why. Both on Antonio Balbi's Arch and the clock tower testify the presence of Venice and its winged lion. Next, we make our way through the cobbled streets of old Rovinj, passing by the City Hall, the Big Square, through the old Jewish Quarter to Saint Euphemia's. This large catholic church is the symbol of the town, watching over the Rovinj aquatorium.

Included:

About the city...

Porec is the most popular holiday resort in Istria and is frequently named the top resort in Croatia by the Croatian National Tourist Office. There are over 100,000 beds available in the area, but hotels and other facilities are widely spread so the place never feels too crowded. The main tourist areas are two bays south of the town, called Zelena (Green) and Plava (Blue) Laguna (lagoon). They are almost like small towns, with several hotels in each, as well as camping facilities, a marina and shopping and entertainment areas. Most visitors stay in one of the two. If you're in the main part of town and fancy a bit of swimming and sunbathing, head to nearby Sveti Nikola island which you can reach by a regular boat (the journey is only a few minutes).

Gay Friendly Tour & Decumanus' Secrets

Modern day Porec is, by the number of visitors per year, the most significant tourist area of the Istrian peninsula. Porec was the first settlement that the Romans decided to found when they conquered the region in 177 BC, therefore it's the only one that has certain origins. Constructed as a military fort, squarely shaped and located on a peninsula, it was a perfect location. The old town is a very logical maze of streets all laid out on a north-south and east-west pattern. We will begin at the seafront, facing Saint Nicholas's island. The City Hall is a good example of eclectic style, fashionable at the beginning of the 20th century. The main square of Porec is also where the main roman road began- the Decumanus. It still cuts the core of the old town in half. Unlike most towns of western Istria, Porec still preserves some sections of the ancient defensive walls, including some towers. Walking along the Decumanus, a decent number of 600 year old palaces can be appreciated leading us to the entrance of one of the most important religious complexes of Croatia - Euphrasius's Basilica from the 6th century. No other cathedral in Croatia is as old or nearly as special. The whole complex was founded when the region belonged to the Eastern Roman Empire and the gold mosaics of the church are still incredibly well preserved. It is a Unesco world heritage site and a testimony of the strong Christian presence in Porec back at the beginning of Christianity. The tour includes the guided visit of the Cathedral, Baptistery as well as mosaics' museum. To complete our Porec tour, the roman Forum with some remains will also be visited.

About the city...

Colonia Pietas Iulia Pola, name given to Pula by the old Romans, has been writing its history for 3000 years. Gay Friendly Tour & Old Town's Secrets

Pula - glorious in roman times, but then forgotten for almost 1500 years, is marking its comeback to the world scene of historic towns. If there is one place in Croatia with roman monuments that you would want to visit- would have to be Pula. In Croatia, there is one single roman amphitheater/colosseum still standing and that is the one that we call „Arena“, located at the beginning of down-town Pula. All of the outside arches (the full circle) are original from the end of the 1st century AD. We will visit the exterior as well as the interior of the structure, explain why it was built exactly here, how it all worked out and especially its purpose. From gladiator fights, animals, war victory celebrations to Christians being sacrificed, the Amphitheater was the center of life in Roman times. The substructure tunnels are still visible today. Next, we continue our journey through history and admire the three Roman gates that would have been the main entrances into roman Pula 2000 years ago (Double Gate, Hercules's Arch as well as the Sergi/Golden Gate). From the Golden Gate Square, we proceed to the local farmers' market- it is authentic as it caters for most of the 60000 inhabitants that Pula has today: most of the sellers are locals from the villages in the surrounding areas. We continue the tour walking through the Sergi Arch, passed the statue of James Joyce who lived here and taught English for a while in the last century. Dirce's mosaics, the floor of a long disappeared roman villa, are not easy to find, but pay off with their beauty. Discovered only after the WW2 bombings, they tell us about the wealth of Pula in Roman times. Finally, the Sergi street takes us to the Forum where we finish our tour. Augustus, Emperor and God, had a temple erected here literally two thousand years ago- it is the symbol of Pula today and the square in front of it is the place where people meet. The adjacent City Hall is a mixture of styles and worth a stop.

About the city...

Helsinki is a very open-minded city what it comes to clubs and parties. Helsinki's LGBT scene, already fairly big and diverse for a city its size (a little over half a million), is currently experiencing a bit of a boom, with several new gay or mixed venues having opened over the last year or so. As in the other Nordic countries, homosexuality is widely accepted in Finland, so much so that the very president, Tarja Halonen, was once the chairman of SETA, the country's LGBT rights group. Moreover here are bars and nightclubs that have a rainbow flag hanging outside as a sign that they are especially for LGBT folks and gay friendly.

One of the largest cities in the North of England. Liverpool is at the heart of Merseyside. The Industrial Revolution and the growth of its port made it a significant location. It was the departure point of many emigrants from the British Isles who were starting a new life in the Americas. It was the second most bombed city in the UK during World War II. Today, Liverpool is a financial, cultural and academic center. It is best known as the hometown of The Beatles. It has a buzzing nightlife and hosts the first gay village in the UK. The gay village is the only one officially recognized and supported by the city council. The strong socialist tradition makes Liverpool a very welcoming city. About the city...

Belfast is the second largest city on the island of Ireland. Also known as Linenopolis for its being the largest producer, Belfast was a key port and town during the Industrial Revolution. Sectarian violence known as The Troubles divided the city for over 30 years in the 60's. Belfast is still a center of industry with its ports, docks and shipyards that still dominate the economy. Pubs and friendly warm reception attracts tourist from all around. The gay scene of Belfast is vibrant, diverse and surprisingly good for a city of this size. In summer, Belfast celebrates its annual LGBT Pride, the biggest in Ireland, ans in November, the city also hosts the Outburst Queer Arts Festival.

About the city...

Vaduz is a postage-stamp-sized city with a postcard-perfect backdrop. At the foot of forested mountains, hugging the banks of the Rhine and crowned by the castle, its location is stunning. Vaduz is mostly on the flat, while its castle clinging to the side of the mountain. The bustling center is strangely modern, with its mix of tax-free luxury-goods stores and cube-shaped concrete buildings. There are plenty of older buildings though, making it intriguing, especially in the area below the castle. Just a few minutes' walk brings to traces of the picturesque village that existed 50 years ago and quiet vineyards.

About the city...

Bucharest is the capital and largest city of Romania famous for the residence of Vlad the Impaler. Bucharest's history is turbulent and interesting at the same time. This turbulence is reflected in the architecture as traditional Ottoman religious buildings coexists with beautiful Art Nouveau buildings and communist immense buildings. Bucharest has very few exclusively gay attractions, though gay tourists will find enough activities to enjoy. The hipster Floreasca area, although not gay-specific, has a wide selection of LGBT-friendly bars, all seemingly in competition to see who can be the quirkiest. An annual LGBT Pride festival takes place at the end of May where politicians and both local and international celebrities take part.

About the city...

Albania is a mixed situation for gay and lesbian citizens. On one hand, in February 2010, the Parliament of Albania unanimously approved an all inclusive anti-discrimination law which bans discrimination in on the grounds of various characteristics, including sexual orientation and gender identity. Same-gender sex has been legal in Albania since 1995, although general attitudes are exceedingly conservative with many Albanians still stuck in the 16th century. Although Tirana is yet to feature rainbow flags and openly gay bars, the city does at least have one or two gay-friendly places to eat and drink.

About the city...

Rome is the capital and largest city of Italy. Known as the 'Eternal City', Rome is one of the world's most visited tourist destinations. Its historic city centre is a UNESCO World Heritage Site filled with famous landmarks, grand palaces, ancient churches, ruins, statues and fountains. Rome is also recognised as one of the fashion capitals of the world, with a growing nightlife scene. The gay scene in Rome is not yet as 'out in the open' as in other European capitals – partly due to the influence of the Catholic Church. However, times are changing and, as in many other European countries, a new generation of gay men has emerged.

About the city...

In the historical centre, Piazza Bra and the Arena, Piazza Erbe and Piazza dei Signori, Via Cappello and Corso Porta Borsari lead to the Teatro Romano, Ponte Pietra, Castelvecchio, the Ponte Scaligero and the ancient churches of San Fermo and Sant'Anastasia, the Cathedral (Duomo) and San Zeno. Elegant cafés and ancient osterie (typical inns of the Veneto territory), craftsman shops and high couture shops enliven city life all year long. About the city...

Genoa has the largest medieval centre in Europe, thanks to its success, alongside Venice, Amalfi and Pisa, as a Maritime Republic, during the Middle Ages. One of the largest in Europe, Genoa's historic centre unwinds in an intricate maze of alleyways (caruggi) that open unexpectedly onto small squares; the soul of the city lives here in these alleyways, where smells, tastes, and cultures have combined throughout history. In these narrow spaces, tucked away between the hills and the sea, the pride of wealthy Genoese merchants, indomitable leaders of the Republic, had built beautiful mansions, in which works of art have been collected and preserved for centuries and are visible to this day in several house-museums.

Day 2 - Genoa LGBT Friendly City Tour

Breakfast at the hotel. Together with your LGBT Friendly Guide, you will discover the magic and the secrets of the city! Morning walking shared tour with LGBT friendly guide. Among the largest in Europe, the historical city center of Genoa is full of mysteries and curiosities, such as aedicules donated by ancient corporations to improve the lighting at night, and narrow alleys, called "caruggi", revealing some picturesque squares. It is in this maze of narrow streets that you will get to know the true essence of Genoa:

the smells, tastes and different cultures that meet in this coastal town, the pride of wealthy merchants, who decided to build their glorious homes here, now turned into palaces and museums. Houses packed tightly together, a heterogeneous set of architectural styles, churches and historical buildings: this, and much more is Genoa. The visit starts from the Tourist Information Point, located in the Area of the Old St. Mary Porthouse, and continues through the narrow alleyways to the Cathedral, the Ducal Palace and the Carlo Felice Opera House. Then you will admire the "Strada Nuova" (Via Garibaldi) and finally you will arrive at the Museums of Strada Nuova. Some of the original furnishings of the house and important masterpieces of Italian and foreign artists such as Veronese, Procaccini, Rubens and Van Dyck are kept here. At the end of the route the guide will introduce you to the Musei di Strada

Nuova. Free time for lunch on your own tasting local specialities and for shopping, relax or individual visits. In the evening farewell dinner at a local restaurant. About the city...

A tour of the imposing castles and cathedrals that dominate many of the Province's ancient villages is an opportunity to explore its wonderful natural highlights. Bari, cultural crossroads since ancient times, is an ideal starting point, a city where two souls meet: the old town, surrounded by an imposing wall and crossed with narrow streets that lead to the discovery of its rich heritage; and the modern city, built at the beginning of the 19th Century and having endured several changes over time. Bari's restaurants serve ultra-local food that's very hard to find outside the region, while the city's main market has antique bargains and excellent produce.

Day 2: Valletta - Gay Tour - 3 cities (Vittoriosa, Senglea, Cospicua)

Buffet breakfast and be ready to learn more from the Capital City of Malta: Valletta! Together with your LGBT Friendly Tour guide, explore Malta's Capital City which is a real World Heritage site. Reach by Public Bus the city center of Valletta, known as Il-Belt, which contains buildings from the 16th century onwards, built during the rule of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, also known as Knights Hospitaller. Enter the City Gate, a masterpiece by Renzo Piano, afterwards observe the Parliament House and Royal Opera House, then visit St. John's Co-Cathedral (entrance fee included) where you will see the painting 'The Beheading of Saint John the Baptist' by Caravaggio, considered one of Caravaggio's masterpieces and the only painting signed by the painter. Continue then walking through the bustling streets, reaching National War Museum, passing by the Grand Master's Palace and finally arriving to Upper Barrakka Gardens for a breathtaking panorama of the Grand Harbour. After lunch on your own, continue by Ferry from Valletta to the Three Cities, Cospicua, Vittoriosa and Senglea. Explore with your LGBT Friendly Tour Guide the city of Cospicua, a double fortified harbour city and the largest of the three. It was also given a title as Citta' Cottonera, but erroneously the title is now used to define the whole region. You will then arrive in Vittoriosa, which is ideally situated for safe anchorage and over time it has developed a very long history with maritime, mercantile and military activities. Prior to the establishment of Valletta as capital and main city of Malta, military powers that wanted to rule the Maltese islands would need to obtain control of Vittoriosa due to its significant position in the Grand Harbour. The third city Senglea is also called Civitas Invicta because it managed to resist the Ottoman invasion at the Great Siege of 1565. The name Senglea was given by the grandmaster who built it, Claude De La Sengle. The island on which Senglea lies was joined by a land bridge to Cospicua during the time of the Knights of St. John and as a result, it became peninsular in shape. Afterwards back to Valletta by bus or ferry. Dinner on your own and accommodation. Meals: B

Day 3: Dingli Cliffs - Rabat - Mdina - Mosta - Ta'qali

Buffet breakfast and departure to the famous Dingli Cliffs, the highest in Malta, plunging a sheer 250m into the sea. On their rocky top is found one of Malta's more unusual sights. Known as Clapham Junction, this is the largest collection of Malta's mysterious cart ruts that crisscross the surface of the rock. They are mysterious because nobody quite knows how or when they were made and experts can't agree on whether they were deliberately cut or simply eroded by vehicles. Afterwards continue to Rabat where a visit to the Catacombs of St. Paul and St. Agatha is worthwhile and a sure adventure. Then proceed to Mdina, built on a plateau in the centre of the island, the city's old Baroque buildings, cathedral and magnificent bastion walls dominate the rural skyline. Mdina, once the capital of Malta until the modern city of Valletta was built in 1565, has had many names including

Melita (Roman occupation), Medina (Arabic occupation), Citta' Nobile (Knights of St. John) and Citta' Vecchia (after Valletta was built). Today is also referred as the Silent City since it inspires tranquility at any time of the day or night. The only way to really experience and enjoy this city is on foot, explore the quaint alleys, narrow streets, ancient buildings and magnificent far-reaching views from the high bastion walls. Lunch on your own. Your next visit will be Mosta where you will see the church in the centre of the city, built in the 18th century. It became known throughout the country in 1942 when during World War II, a dropped bomb failed to explode, thus sparing the lives of some 300 people. Continue to the town of Ta'Qali, located nearby was once a British WWII outpost, but has been converted to a village for local handicrafts. You will be able to watch local artisans at work blowing elaborate glass art pieces, intricately assembling original silver filigree jewelry, carving the local limestone and many more. This is the perfect place to pick up treasures that will remind you of your Malta visit. Back to Sliema/St. Julian's area. Dinner on your own and accommodation. Meals: B

Day 4: Gozo - Blue Lagoon - Comino

Buffet breakfast and departure from Sliema ferries. Board on your vessel, cruising towards the island of Comino, passing Comino through the north Comino channel towards the Island of Gozo, which is also known as the island of Calypso. On arrival at the Mgarr Harbour you will be welcomed by our representative who will drive you around this beautiful island. You will first drive through the village of Xewkija where you drive past the largest church in Gozo which also boasts being the third largest unsupported dome in the world, then you will have the pleasure to taste Gozitan products and have a look around an Artisan Centre, followed by the village of Gharb, where you will see the famous Ta' Pinu Church. You will then proceed to the Capital City, Citadel. After visiting this mythical island, you will proceed to Mgarr

Harbour for your transfer to the Blue Lagoon. You will be informed which Captain Morgan vessel to board following a one hour stop for swimming and / or sightseeing at the famous Blue Lagoon on Comino Island. The Blue lagoon is famous for its turquoise, bluish-green crystal clear waters... truly, Malta's paradise! We leave Comino and head towards Sliema once again via the north-east coast of Malta. On our way back, we cruise past Mellieha Bay, St. Paul's Islands, Bahar ic-Caghaq, St. Andrews, St. Julians, the Sliema Promenade and finally around Tigné Point to Sliema Creek. Dinner on your own and accommodation. Meals: B

Day 5: Hagar Qim - Mnajdra Temples - Blue Grotto - Ghar Dalam - Marsaxlokk

Buffet breakfast and departure to Hagar Qim & Mnajdra Temples. The megalithic complex of Hagar Qim is located atop a hill on the southern edge of the Island. All exposed rock on the island was deposited during the Oligocene and Miocene periods of geological time. 500 metres from Hagar Qim stands the Mnajdra megalithic temple. The surrounding area is typical of Mediterranean garrigue in its starkness and isolation; it is designated as a Heritage park. A few hundred metres from the temple is one of the thirteen watchtowers built by Grand Master Martin de Redin, called Hamrija Tower. Afterwards continue to the Blue Grotto caves, which are one of the natural wonders which you should not miss whilst in Malta. Lunch on your own and then drive to Gnar Dalam, a prehistoric site which was discovered in the latter half of the 19th Century with a series of excavations unearthing animal bones as well as human remains and artifacts. The Cave is a highly important site for its Palaeontology, archaeology and ecology. The history of the cave and that of the Islands can be decoded from Gnar Dalam's stratigraphy. The site consists of a cave, a Victorian style exhibition and a didactic display as well as a garden planted with indigenous plants and trees. Afterwards reach the special town of Marsaxlokk, a famous village known for its big Sunday fish market and its many decorative "eyed" painted boats called Luzzus. The village has around 3200 inhabitants and in the past, most of the inhabitants worked as fishermen. The name Marsaxlokk comes from the word "marsa" which means port and the word "xlokk" which means south in Maltese. Marsaxlokk is the most important fishing village of Malta, with a large number of families very much involved with fishing. Experience the unique busy atmosphere of the largest fish market on the island, with many Maltese travelling from as far as the north of the island to purchase the latest catch. The market itself offers a delightful variety of traditional Maltese things, from handicrafts to home-made delicacies, as well as other less traditional items such as clothing and houseware. A smaller version of the market is also held daily. After the visit and having a drink, back to Sliema/St. Julian's area. Dinner on your own and accommodation. Meals: B

Further akin you can enter the Mizip forest for a lovely walk, and head around the hill towards the quaint Mistra Bay, stopping at the Roman Baths for a rest while taking in a breathtaking view. See the few historic building that survived the war: the post office, townhall and Laurens Church. The court of the Abraham Dole convent awaits you with its peculiar history. The oldest canal of Utrechts, the Oudegracht, has been an important life-line since 2000 years and is characterized by more than 700 dockyard. Wise neighbors let the vaults here, thus providing for a still alive variety on the canal. Be amazed at the history of the hermit Suster Bertken at the Buurkerk and learn about the importance of trade across the river with areas up the Rhine and far out of town. Listen to the role played by Vredenburg and why the brewer's wife Trijn van Leemput became a heroine of the city. Day 6: Bistrita - Targu-Mures - Biertan - Sighisoara - Gay Tour

Buffet Breakfast and departure by Car or Minibus to Targu-Mures is a small jewel that shows the traces of a difficult past that has greatly influenced its evolution. Perhaps the most evocative place is the citadel built at the beginning of the seventeenth century with a 900 m long brick wall protected by seven bastions of about 10 m in height bearing the names of the ancient guilds. Lunch on your own. Continue to the Biertan Fortress, included in the Unesco World Heritage, with the fortified church of Biertan which is a true jewel of Saxon architecture. Afterwards transfer to Sighisoara, known as "The Pearl of Transylvania". Enjoy a walking tour with LGBT Friendly Tour Guide. The city was developed by the German settlers as of late 12th century. It stands on a network of tunnels and catacombs and, according to one version of the myth; this is where the Pied Piper brought the children of Hamelin after their ungrateful parents refused to pay him his due. Your walking tour includes the two squares of the Citadel (Upper Town), the Scholars' Staircase, the House with Antler, the Tower with Clock (climb up for a great view), the Torture Chamber and the Weapon Museum. Sighişoara is the place where the Vlad the Impaler Dracula was born in 1431. The Birthplace is one of the main tourist attractions. Dinner on your own and overnight. Meals: No

Day 2: Sofia - Gay Tour

Buffet Breakfast and enjoy a full-day tour of Sofia with a LGBT Friendly Tour Guide, who will take a great care for your company, providing interesting information and pleasurable approach. The tour will include the most interesting sites in the historical centre of the Bulgarian capital such as the largest Orthodox Church on the Balkan Peninsula - Alexander Nevski cathedral, "Ivan Vazov" National Theatre, The National Assembly, and The Central Baths, "Kliment Ohridski" University of Sofia, "St. Nikolai" Russian Church, "St. Nedelya" Church and others. You will be amazed to see the holy buildings of four different religions located together within a small area of 1 sq. km right in the heart of the historical city – a mosque, a synagogue, a catholic church and a couple of orthodox churches. They stand in their full beauty and architectural styles, creating a diverse and multireligious look of the Bulgarian capital – a proof that Bulgarians have always been tolerant to the people's region, visions and self-consciousness. Lunch on your own to taste specialties like "Banitsa" (pastry with cheese and eggs), "Moussaka" (meat and potatoes delicious dish) and or "Shopska" salad. In the afternoon we will take a walk to see the building of the National Palace of Culture – an example of the typical socialist architecture in size, dimensions and style. The area around the building is a preferred place for people to meet and gather. Behind it is located another popular place – "The Lovers' Bridge". A lot of couples in love enjoy sitting on the bridge at sunset admiring the beautiful panorama of Vitosha Mountain, taking a look also at the various open-air exhibitions on the bridge. Dinner on your own. The night is at your disposal to enjoy the gay clubs in Sofia. Your guide will give you some suggestions and guidelines. Overnight in Sofia. Meals: B

Day 3: Sofia - Veliko Tarnovo

Buffet Breakfast and free time for individual visits and shopping through Vitosha trade street in Sofia. Time for lunch on your own. Don't miss the opportunity to try a "tarator" - cold cucumber soup with Bulgarian yoghurt. Transfer to the Train/Bus station for your ride to Veliko Tarnovo. Accommodation. Dinner on your own and free night for party. Overnight. Meals: B

Day 4: Veliko Tarnovo - Varna

Buffet Breakfast and morning tour of Veliko Tarnovo with your knowledgeable LGBT friendly local Tour Guide, which will turn your tour into a lively mixture of history facts, modern urban culture, hidden places, graffiti meanings, not so known stories and legends, and all sorts of visiting tips. You will start with the rich heritage from the Middle Ages and the remains of the fortress, occupying Tsarevets hill at the edge of the town. It is still standing strong, being a silent witness of its history for over 15 centuries and remembering its glory past back from the time when the city was capital of the Second Bulgarian Kingdom. The Tsarevets Fortress is enormous with its remains from around 400 houses, 18 churches, the royal palace, the execution rock and the Patriarchate church with its very alternative interior wallpaintings. The site itself offers a breathtaking view over the town of Veliko Tarnovo and the smooth meanders of Yantra river. You will continue with a walk down the main street to the former market quarter – Samovodska Charshiya. You will feel like you have just used a time machine back to the 1880s, because the houses along this street still keep the architectural style from the National Revival at its best. In the lower part of the street you can find numerous souvenir shops, restaurants and traditional workshops but the higher you go the more authentic the views are, getting you back to the old times. Transfer to the train/bus station for your ride to Varna – the pearl of the Bulgarian seaside. Accommodation and dinner on your own. Live the night partying around the city clubs or to take a cab to the nearby Golden Sands summer resort to get into "the eye of the party storm". Overnight. Meals: B

Day 5: Varna

Buffet Breakfast and enjoy a nice full-day tour of Varna with a LGBT friendly local Tour Guide including its most famous places of interest – the Sea Garden, The Roman Thermae, The Cathedral and the Archaeological museum. The Sea Garden is the emblem of Varna, situated on an area of 85ha along the seaside line. There is a sun-dial representing a flying swan at the entrance of the sea garden. The Roman Thermae remains are located in the southeast part of the contemporary city of Varna. It was the biggest social building from the past discovered in Bulgaria till now. A lot of graphic drawings and inscriptions were found in the galleries. It was the biggest in the European part of the Roman Empire. The Varna Archaeological Museum keeps more than 100 000 objects-monuments of past epochs from Varna and region. The museum houses exhibits of the oldest gold treasure in Europe. Another pretty interesting landmark of Bulgaria's "summer capital" is the lovely cathedral and the charming buildings clustered around the pedestrian main square. The beach is within walking distance but if you are into slightly more secluded locations then you can hop on a bus and head to any of the surrounding beaches. The city also has a diverse sports and cultural life. If you are a fan of the ballet, you need to come in July, when Varna hosts the annual International Ballet Competition. Dinner on your own and night at your disposal to further explore the hidden “treasures” of the city and the surroundings. Overnight. Meals: B

Day 6: Varna - Plovdiv

Buffet Breakfast and leisure time to enjoy the city and the beach ! In the afternoon transfer to the Train/Bus station for your journey to Plovdiv. Arriving late in the evening at Plovdiv and transfer to your hotel for accommodation. Overnight. Meals: B

Day 7: Plovdiv

Buffet Breakfast and meeting with your LGBT friendly Tour Guide to start your Full-day tour of Plovdiv - the second largest city in Bulgaria. The city is one of the most ancient towns in Europe. Being almost a contemporary of Troy, Plovdiv is a town built upon layers of towns and a culture developed upon layers of cultures. It is a place where Thracian, Hellenic, Roman, Byzantine, Ottoman and Bulgarian Revival art meet. The city is located on seven hills, just like Rome. Walking along narrow, paved streets full of art galleries and museums creates a pleasurable atmosphere. The Roman stadium is located in the middle of the main shopping street, and while only one part of it is visible (the rest is still underground), it's still a very interesting site. A bit further uphill is the beautifully-preserved Roman theatre. It is still used for open-air performances such as concerts, opera, ballet, etc. A number of other Roman remains and mosaics can be seen all around the today's Central Post Office, the excavations are still going. Plovdiv's Old Town offers you a look to the pretty wellpreserved appearance of the town from the time back to 19th century, when rich Bulgarian, Greek and Armenian merchants built large houses with bay-windows over the cobbled streets. The best example is probably Kuyumdzhiev House, now hosting the Ethnographic Museum. Lunch on your own. Don't miss to taste some local wine since Plovdiv and the region of the Thracian valley are proud to produce some excellent quality wines, especially the unique sort red wine – mavrud. Apart from offering archeological treasures, Plovdiv is one of the most culturally vibrant sites on the Balkans with a number of cultural festivals, full of art neighborhoods and cool bars. Plovdiv is scheduled to be European Capital of Culture in 2019 and it really deserves this title for its vibrant cultural buzz. September is when the energy bursts into a number of theatre, arts and music festivals, as well as the Night of Museums and Galleries, transforming the city into a lively art party, taking all night. Afternoon at leisure for individual visits and shopping. Night time at your disposal to visit some of the best clubs in the town. Overnight. Meals: B

Day 8: Plovdiv - Sofia

Lunch on your own. In the late afternoon you will be transferred to the station for a ride back to Sofia, accommodation and dinner on your own. Make sure to do a proper celebration of your last night in Bulgaria. Overnight. Meals: B

Buffet breakfast and departure to the fairy Lake Braies, a small alpine lake just inside the Dolomites UNESCO. The lake, which is also often called the 'pearl of Dolomites' lakes', owes its origin to the barrier to landslide. Even this lake hides a legend. Braies valley was inhabited by some ugly-looking savages that looked after the gold present in the nearby mountains. For these people, gold was precious for its splendor, but it also made them hard in their heart. When some animal breeders appeared in the valley, together with their livestock, the wild figures gave them some objects produced with this gold. The breeders, seeing such abundance of wealth, became greedy and started to seize the precious raw material, stealing it from the savage population. The 'savage' people thus decided to prevent the breeders from reaching the mountains, and had some springs gushing forth from the rock, which actually went to form the Lago di Braies downstream: this prevented the breeders from stealing further gold from the local 'savages'. Start your short walking tour of Venice following the route of one of the most important German writer, Thomas Mann, and its romance and masterpiece "Death in Venice", a story of passion and love between the writer Gustav von Aschenbach and Tadzio, a charming boy. Continue to Hotel Des Bains, famous place where Thomas Mann met his young Polish love. In your LGBT tour you won't miss admiring the Golden Basilique of San Mark, built over several centuries in a fusion of Byzantine, Roman and Venetian architecture, the Doge's Palace (from the outside), the famous Canal Grande and Rialto Bridge, and finally the Sospiri Bridge, created at the beginning of the 17th century to serve as a link between prisons. Lunch on your own to taste local specialities. In the afternoon be ready to celebrate! Discover the oldest and the most internationally known festival celebrated in Italy. This congregation of masked people began in the 15th century, but the tradition can be traced back to the beginning of the 14th Century. During those years one of the first laws made by the Serenissima was that masks cannot be used around the city at night. Later, Venice Carnival attracted foreigners - including princes - from all over Europe, who came to enjoy the wild festivities while spending fortunes. The streets of Venice Carnival were full of people in masks, and no differentiation could be made between nobility and the common people. In the late afternoon Optional Exclusive Venice Galleon for a Carnival Party! (Contact us for more information and prices) The cruise will include a welcome drink, buffet dinner while sailing to the islands of Murano, Burano, Torcello and toast in front of the wonderful St Mark's Square. Midnight approximately: guests landing in Venice (at the same port of departure, near the Naval Museum) *Wearing a mask is appreciated. Afterwards don't lose the opportunity to dance the night away with your new friends at a LGBT Party in one of the most popular LGBT disco of the city. Overnight.

the stunning Apulian olive groves. Continue to Alberobello, UNESCO World Heritage Site and the city of Trulli, worldwide famous for their beauty and unique characteristics, and representing one of the most extraordinary examples of Italian folk architecture. Day 3: Verona - Bolzano

Buffet Breakfast at your hotel. Today you will experience a beautiful trekking in the Dolomites. There are a few summits that have come to symbolise the word "mountain". The Tre Cime di Lavaredo would certainly top an imaginary hit list of these. Many people have seen the Tre Cime in illustrations hundreds of times and think that they know them, but the moment you see them "in nature" is a moment not to be forgotten. This proposal is circular and unforgettable hike around the Three Peaks of Lavaredo. The Tre Cime di Lavaredo (Three peaks of Lavaredo) are a bizarre and striking alpenstock belonging to the Sesto Dolomites, mainly characterised by its distinctive form. Due to this special shape, these three pinnacles are world-famous and are considered to be the symbol of the (Sesto) Dolomites. The famous alpenstock consists of the Cima Grande (2,999 m) which is the pinnacle in the middle, the Cima Piccola (2,857 m) and the Cima Ovest (west peak, 2,973 m). The view on the north face of the Tre Cime di Lavaredo is one of the most famous alpine images and views all over the world. The day will start with a transfer by car through the Isarco Valley and Pusteria Valley to Misurina Lake (120 km-2 hours); from Lake Misurina (photo stop) we will climb up to the Auronzo Refuge (2,333 m) with the toll road of 7 km. Regeneration in Apulian Trulli & Matera's Stones

Priced from € 700

Individual & Small Group suggested tour

Featuring: Bari - Alberobello - Castellana Caves - Matera

LGBT Friendly Tour Guide for Gaily Tours and Excursions

Itinerary

Day 1: Bari - Alberobello

Arrival transfer from Bari airport to your hotel. Welcome drink at your hotel. Rest of the day free for relax, swimming pool and enjoy the spa. Welcome dinner at your hotel. Overnight in a real Trullo for an authentic experience in Apulia. Rainbow Tips: our recommended Trulli Holiday Resort is an excellent example of gay friendly hotel in Southern Italy.

Meals: D

Day 2: Alberobello - Castellana Caves

Buffet breakfast and welcome to the fairytale city of Alberobello, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and the city of Trulli, worldwide famous for their beauty and unique characteristics, and representing one of the most extraordinary examples of Italian folk architecture. They were built in a particular historical period, when the construction of stable dwellings was highly-taxed; the inhabitants of the region thus boasted a great capacity to adapt, and an exceptional cleverness in coming up with the idea for the Trulli, temporary houses built with the local stone. Walking guided tour on your own through this area to see Casa d'Amore and Sant'Antonio Church. Lunch on your own to taste local specialities. In the afternoon excursion to Castellana's Caves, a must-see attraction in the province of Bari. This system of caves features a series of passageways and chambers located 70 metres underground and dominated by rows of stalactites hanging like giant needles, with glittering walls of crystal, underground lakes and huge stalagmites towering up from the rock floor. After the visit back to Alberobello and free time. Exclusive dinner in an authentic Trullo with Apulian specialities.

Meals: B - D

Day 3: Matera

Buffet breakfast and excursion to the special city of Matera. Once there, accommodation at your special hotel, just inside the famous Matera's Stones! The city, declared European Capital of Culture of 2019, is a very special unusual, interesting and singular place. People still live inside the "Sassi" (Stones), a real UNESCO World Heritage Site. The caves of Matera had been inhabited for centuries; some humble and some smarter residences, but by the early twentieth-century the area was a by-word for poverty. Until the 1950s hundreds of families were still living crowded into cave-houses here. The squalor and malaria-ridden conditions became a national scandal and finally the cave residents were moved - by law - to modern buildings on the plateau above. Nowadays the caves of Matera are fascinating reminders of the past. Matera has become steadily more popular as an off-the-beaten-track tourist destination. More and more old cave-houses are being converted into comfortable modern dwellings, into hotels, B&Bs and restaurants. Take a walk on your own in this special town to discover it. Matera was also the one of the filming locations for Mel Gibson's film The Passion of the Christ, with shots showing the sassi and the gorge below. Lunch on your own to taste local specialities. Afternoon free for individual visits and shopping. Exclusive dinner inside Matera's Stones with local specialities. Overnight.

Meals: B - D

Day 4: Matera - Bari

Breakfast at the hotel. Transfer from the hotel to Bari airport.

Read some of their experiences and works:

Cristina and Paola...

We have been organising Weddings since January 2012, after years of experience and passion in show business, organizing cultural, theatrical and political events. Our agency has always had a very special attention and care of the needs of gay and lesbian couples who wanted to get married abroad. In 2014 we launched a range of products completely dedicated to a LGBT publicum. Civil partnership for same sex couples is now legal in Italy, so this is a great time listen to couples here in Italy, both Italians and foreigners, who wish to celebrate their marriage in our country. For this reason our agency has two locations: Rome and London. We follow our couples throughout the whole journey, suggesting solutions and manage their relationship with all suppliers and those whose contribution is essential to complete a memorable day. The first meeting takes place in the country of origin of the couple and the realization of the event takes place directly on the city chosen for the wedding, coordinating professional and experienced partners, chosen accordingly to their needs. We offer to our clients a wide range of locations (castles, villas, historical residences, medieval villages, and luxury restaurants in Rome; theatres, member clubs, gardens and villas in London); we conduct monthly research on emerging realities that might stimulate the imagination/creativity of the most demanding clients. Our society is an international player in pink, young and dynamic. Its mission is to fulfil the dream of a unique wedding and memorable experience with competence, originality and the best smile of those who work with great passion and love.

Miriam...

Our company was born from the idea of four Italian professionals that have been working for years in the field of events, communication, fashion and PR. We aim to put the best of the Italian wise art of reception and culture of beauty at a disposal of the most important day of two people's life. What we offer is a ceremony in the traditional Italian style that made the "Matrimonio all' Italiana" renowned the world over, supported by a service specific for same-sex couples. What makes us different? We offer a new service, that differs from those of others competitors, for its being the perfect and innovative combination between the traditional wedding's Italian style and the specific service that LGBT couples need. Our agency is the ideal partner to meet the demands and needs of foreign clients that think about our beautiful country as the perfect frame for their celebrations. Moreover, none of us come from the wedding planning industry and, as outsiders, we (proudly) offer a new vision able to re-interpret the tradition in a new key. We are professional with a long-standing experience in the field of events. All of us has a particular skills experiences in different fields : we shoot from designs great events stages, exposition stands, art exhibits, tv scenographers and fashion shows. In addition among our excellence also participate in the realization of sports events (Olympic Games, Uefa Champion League, Football World Cup) cultural events (mostly Countries Golf Area and Azerbaijan and Kazakhstan).
